

PRODUCER ORGANIZATIONS STRENGTHENING PROJECT

ADVERTISEMENT FOR DATA COLLECTION ENUMERATORS

The Co-operative University of Kenya (CUK) in partnership with Moshi Cooperative University, Tanzania, is conducting a research study on strengthening producer organisations (Agricultural cooperatives, CBOs and SHGs) in Kenya and Tanzania. The study is supported by Hand in Hand International (HiHI) and aims to generate data that will enable Hand in Hand Eastern Africa to design and test approaches of supporting institutions (SHGs, CBOs, and cooperatives) that create an enabling environment for entrepreneurs.

As part of this study, we are seeking qualified and motivated enumerators to support data collection activities in the Mt. Kenya Region, specifically Embu, Kirinyaga, Meru, Murang'a, Nyeri, Kiambu (Thika), and Tharaka Nithi, Counties.

Requirements

Applicants must:

1. Hold a Bachelor's degree in Cooperative Business, Community Development, Disaster Risk Management, Sustainable Development or related disciplines from The Co-operative University of Kenya.
2. Be resident of one of the study counties.
3. Possess either a smart phone or a tablet.
4. Be fluent in the dominant language spoken in the study area.
5. Be available for the entire training and data collection period.
6. Having served as an enumerator before will be an added advantage.

Assignment Period

For successful applicants, enumerator training will be conducted in second week of June 2026, and thereafter data collection will commence.

Application Procedure

Interested applicants should submit:

1. Application Letter.
2. Copy of Degree Certificate or Letter of Completion.
3. Academic Transcripts.
4. Copy of National Identification Card.
5. Current Curriculum Vitae.

Applications should be addressed to: The Principal Investigator, PO Strengthening Project, and emailed to: d.anyona@cuk.ac.ke and copied to directordri@cuk.ac.ke by 5pm on or before 1st June 2026.

